

George Hutcheon Hibernation Airgun Match

Sponsored by Richmond Rod And Gun Club

November 4-5, 2017

Place: Richmond Rod And Gun Club 7400 River Road Richmond B.C.(Southwest of #3 Rd & Cambie Rd)

Eligibility: Open to all competitors. Membership in B.C.T.S.A. and S.F.C. or their respective Provincial or National organization is required

Course of Fire: Match consists of 3 complete courses of fire for an aggregate match score. 90 minutes for open classes and Jr. Males, 60 minutes for ladies and Jr. Ladies on returning targets. A 15 Minute preparation time and sighting time starts before the match.

Classification: Competitors will be classified according to their SFC or U.S. shooting cards. Those unable to produce a valid card will compete in the Expert Class.

Rules: Standard ISSF Rules will apply with the use of paper targets Pistol will shoot 2 shots per target Rifle will shoot 1 shot per target

Airguns: All Airguns must meet ISSF Specification. Airguns will be subject to inspection. The same airgun must be used for all 3 courses of fire in order to qualify for the aggregate score, unless it becomes disabled and then may be replaced with approval of the Chief Range Officer

Schedule: Registration and Gun Check – Saturday November 4, 2017 - 07:00

A Relay – Saturday 08:15 & 12:45 Sunday 08:30

B Relay - Saturday 10:30 & 15:00 Sunday 10:45

These are “Athletes to the line” times, then there is 15 Min Prep time, then match start (See description of one match below)

Awards immediately after range tear down – approx. 13:30

Awards: Awards will be First, Second and Third providing there are Five (5) or more in a class. If there are 4 in class there will be 2 awards and Three (3) or less there will be 1 award

Example Match Time

A – 1 Relay Saturday

8:45 Competition Start Time

8:15 Athletes to the Line

8:30 Preparation and Sighting time

8:45 Match Start

9:45 Ladies Stop

10:15 Men Stop

Accommodations: Accent Inn - Nov 3 – 5, 2017

GROUP ID 5323393 - Reservations must be made before Oct 15 for Group price

1 800 663-0298