

CANADIAN NATIONAL MATCHES MATCH RECORDS - CURRENT

General Comments

- 1) This is a listing of Match Records in the Canadian National Matches compiled from the results from 1989 onward (ISSF matches) and 1996 onward (Sporting Rifle matches). (The 1989 results were not as complete as the remaining sets.) It is believed to be accurate, but some errors or omissions might have crept in.
- 2) The ISSF target was changed in 1989 and the Sporting Rifle target in 1996, so older scores are not comparable.
- 3) This listing includes only events and categories that are part of the current program.
- 4) A number of changes have been made to the disciplines at various times in the 1989-1999 period. A brief rundown:
 - 1994: Finals were added to the ISSF Prone, 3-Position and Standard Rifle matches.
The ISSF Prone match became a 4x60 shot Iron Sight match. (it was previously 2x60 shots Iron Sight, 2x60 shots Any Sight.)
 - 1995: Tier 1 teams became 5-person. (Previously 6-person.)
 - 1996: Tier 1 teams back to 6-persons.
 - 1997: Tier 1 teams 5-person again.
Air rifle was fired as a squadded match rather than on a continuing basis throughout the Nationals.
Finals were added to the Air Rifle matches at the same time.
The ISSF Prone match became 3x60 shot courses (Previously 4x60 shots.)
The UIT Standard Rifle match was discontinued (by the UIT), and replaced with the UIT Sport Rifle match for Ladies only.
 - 1998: The Wakefield trophy match was added.
 - 1999: Introductory Sporting Rifle was added.
Junior Pairs in Air Rifle was added.
 - 2001: Hunting Rifle replaces Introductory Sporting Rifle
 - 2004: International Junior category added to Sporting Rifle
Sporting Rifle Junior now <16 rather than <18
 - 2005 ISSF Air Rifle segregated into Men's and Women's categories
ISSF 3-Position (120-shot) restricted to Men only
ISSF Ladies Grand Aggregate with Sport Rifle and Prone introduced
 - 2006 ISSF Prone segregated into Men's and Women's categories
Air Rifle Junior teams become 3-person instead of 2.
3-Person Junior teams added in ISSF Prone and 3-Position, Sporting Rifle Prone and 3-Position
 - 2008 Junior Finals added in ISSF Prone, ISSF 3-Pos, ISSF Sport Rifle, Men's Air Rifle, and Ladies Air Rifle
 - 2009 Sporting Rifle teams became 3-person. ISSF Prone teams became Mixed (Men & Women).
